With great care, the CRC team can seamlessly overcome your challenges, no matter how extreme the situation or how many stakeholders are involved. CRC offers over a century of combined leadership in risk management and problem solving. Trusted partnerships, proven performance, value and service. Addressing tomorrow's threats today.

CORE

CAPABILITIES

The Global Security Division (GSD) of CRC provides risk advisory and security-related services to government and commercial clients around the world. The Global Security Services offered by the GSD fall under two main areas: Security and Resiliency.

Security offerings include:

- Person of interest, background, and due diligence investigations
- Physical security evaluation and consulting
- Physical and technical surveillance including countermeasures and counter-surveillance
- Customized executive protection
- Security auditing and gap analysis
- Insider Threat vulnerability, risk assessments and program design
- Event and venue security

Resiliency offerings include:

- Consulting/advising in corporate security and corporate safety culture
- Logistics and supply chain assessments
- Business Operations Continuity
- Crisis management planning and training
- Data (cyber) vulnerability assessments

The GSD is led by Mr. Jay Tabb, a Senior Vice President at CRC. Mr. Tabb provides domestic and international security solutions for government and commercial clients. Mr. Tabb has extensive real-world experience managing risk and defending the U.S. and its allies from myriad threats, including both physical and cyber national security vectors.

He is a recently retired career Senior Executive and Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), as well as a former U.S. Marine Corps (USMC) infantry officer with over three decades of national security and law enforcement experience leading strategic programs, overseeing large budgets, and managing global security solutions.
