

IT Advisor in Guatemala City, Guatemala

CRC is seeking a qualified IT advisor to act as Technical Advisor on Human Rights Computer System as part of the Central America Regional Security Initiative (CARSI). The CARSI Initiative, one of the largest and most sophisticated multi-lateral security efforts in the world, provides funding for the USG to assist the governments of the CARSI countries with police professionalization, justice sector reform, counter narcotics efforts, border security management, crime and violence prevention, and anti-corruption efforts.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Develop the application software for the Methodology as a proprietary system and eventually interconnected and integrated with the existing platforms within Government Ministry, Public Ministry, and/or any other GOG Agency which is related to human rights field such as COPREDEH. Prepare the development manual for the Standard Format for Gathering of Information application, including software source code.
- Prepare the user manual for the application of the Methodology to Analyze Patterns of Attacks against Human Rights Defenders.
- Provide training on the use of manual and software.
- Develop the software application to implement the Standard Format for Gathering of Information as a proprietary system and eventually interconnected and integrated with the existing platforms within the Ministry of Government, the Public Ministry and/or any other GOG Agency which is related to human rights field such as COPREDEH.
- Prepare the development manual for the Standard Format for Gathering of Information application, including software source code.
- Provide the necessary advice to elaborate the User Manual for the Standard Format for Gathering of Information and its corresponding application.
- Provide training on use of manual and of software application.
- Evaluate the systems in use by the GOG, in example SICOMP and/or SIPOL2, to establish the possibility of methodology software integration and the Standard Format for Gathering of Information or create a new system. Evaluation is not limited to SICOMP and/or SIPOL2.
- Contribute with the expert in the methodology of Pattern Identification in the design of graphical interfaces, creation and selection of algorithms.
- Final written report must be provided in English and Spanish.
- Hours for the contract will be the core hours of the Guatemalan Government with no more than 40 hours maximum per week.
- The position is located in Guatemala City. No travel is required.
- Perform other duties as requested and assigned by INL Rule of Law and Justice Sector Reform Program Manager.

Qualifications

CRC

- University Degree in Computer Engineering.
- Guatemala citizen
- RSO security clearance
- A minimum of 5 years of demonstrable experience in application development in various programming languages.
- Knowledge of integration and interconnection for developed applications with existing systems, process analysis, methodologies and their implementation into computer applications.
- Experience in application systems related to Justice and Security Administration.
- Demonstrated experience in training.
- Fluent FSI level 4 in Spanish with ability to write a concise report in English FSI level 4 and communicate complex issues in Spanish, both orally and in written form.

About CRC

Crisis Response Company, LLC (CRC) is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) formed in 2009 by leaders who have captured and led numerous and recent peacekeeping operations on behalf of DoS, DoD, United Nations, the African Union, and Private Industry. CRC's leadership formed the company with a single goal to enable Governments and Private Industry succeed in Security Sector Reform/Transformation, Subject Matter Expert Manning, and Defense initiatives around the globe.

Please send qualified resumes to admin@crc-intl.com