

Software Developer

Crisis Response Company (CRC) is seeking a qualified part-time Software Developer. This position works with CRC leadership and supports the development of CRC's proprietary online tool, Acacia®. This is a great opportunity for a project-oriented individual to assisting CRC through the next phase of growth.

Responsibilities include:

- Works with Senior Management and support staff to gain an understanding of platform objectives.
- Provides input and recommendation to Senior Management on best way(s) to accomplish and implement platform goals and objectives.
- Works to prioritize list of requirements based on input from leadership.
- Provide recommendations on additional tools or capabilities to be added based on platform objectives.
- Provides a realistic project timeline and outlines milestones.
- Program and develops the Acacia tool based on platform objectives.
- Confirms program operation by conducting tests; modifying program sequence and/or codes.
- Prepares reference for users by writing operating instructions.
- Maintains historical records by documenting program development and revisions.

What you'll need:

- 2-4 years of experience with Django, PostgreSQL, and Elastic Stack
- Located in Dallas / Ft. Worth area
- Familiarity with AWS
- Demonstrated experience working with Leadership to accomplish company objectives
- Demonstrated experience adhering to project timeline
- Strong written and oral communication skills

What you'll get:

- Market competitive total rewards package
- A team that strives for success and lives our core values each and every day
- The opportunity to have SIGNIFICANT impact within CRC and on the programs we support.

About CRC

Crisis Response Company, LLC (CRC) is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) providing Contingency Operations to the DoS, DoD, United Nations, the African Union, and Private Industry globally.

Please send qualified resumes to admin@crc-intl.com or call (817) 337-1000